Rajiv Mehta - Wikipedia (clone-wikipedia-master.onrender.com)

Key Observation:

Name	Rajiv Mehta
Born	28.09.2000
Nationality	Indian
Occupation	CEO of FinSecure
Alma Mater	IIT Bombay, Harvard Business School

Early Life and Education

Rajiv Mehta was born in Mumbai, India, into a family that valued education and hard work. From a young age, Mehta displayed a keen interest in technology and finance, often spending hours tinkering with computers and learning about financial systems. His early fascination with these fields led him to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science from the prestigious Indian Institute of Technology (IIT) Bombay. During his time at IIT, Mehta was recognized for his exceptional problem-solving skills and innovative thinking. He participated in various technology competitions, winning accolades and gaining attention from industry leaders.

Following his undergraduate studies, Mehta chose to further his education by pursuing an MBA from the Indian School of Business (ISB), Hyderabad. At ISB, he focused on finance and entrepreneurship, gaining valuable insights into the business aspects of technology and finance. His time at ISB was marked by a series of successful projects and internships that further honed his skills in managing and leading tech-driven ventures.

There is a discrepancy between the Alma Maters listed on the info box and the text content of the Wikipedia page. There is uncertainty about the business school he attended: ISB Hyderabad, India or Harvard Business School, US.

Surpassing 100 Million Users!

🎉 Milestone Alert! 🎉 I am beyond thrilled to announce that FinSecure has officially surpassed 100 million users! 🚀 This is not just a number, but a testament to our relentless pursuit of excellence and innovation in the fintech world. Our user base has now surpassed all our competitors, solidifying our position as a leader in India's digital payments space. 💡 What started as an ambitious vision to simplify and secure UPI payments has now become a reality, thanks to the trust of our users and the dedication of the FinSecure team. This is just the beginning — we're only going to grow from here! A heartfelt thank you to everyone who believed in our mission. Let's continue revolutionizing the future of fintech together!

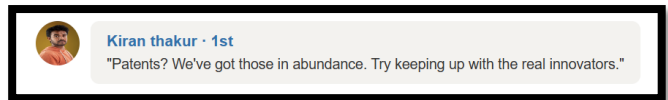

The victim has openly linked the website of his competitor. There may be a lead on this.

A Game-Changing Patent in Digital Payments!

🔑 We're Changing the Game! 🎉 Today, I'm proud to share that FinSecure has been granted an exclusive patent for our biometric-based UPI transaction system, fingerprint verification with the Aadhaar database. This groundbreaking technology promises to take digital payments security to the next level, reducing fraud and enhancing user confidence. 🏆 This patent is not just a win for FinSecure, but for the entire fintech ecosystem, as we continue to lead with innovations that truly matter. Our system is poised to become a gold standard in digital payments security. The future of secure and seamless payments is here. Onwards and upwards!

Key Observation:

18.01.2024	Notification of Patent Granted - PayWave Ltd - Face ID based UPI
18.02.2024	Notification of Patent Granted - FinSecure Ltd - Fingerprint based UPI

The competitors have filed patents exactly one month apart: both in the same field.

Evidence 4: Competitor's Website (according to victim)

PayWave - Simplifying FinTech \(paywave-4cla.onrender.com\)

Key Observation:

The content on the webpage that the victim had labelled as 'competitor' confirms that the individual who commented on his posts is his competitor. There may be some business tensions between these two.

Clicking the Learn More button leads to the Ministry of Corporate Affairs site containing the company registration document and the patents of FinSecure (evidence 3).

He has over 15 years of experience in the fintech space. Before founding FinSecure, he led major financial institutions in adopting new technologies, making him a recognized thought leader in the field of digital payments.

There seems to be discrepancies in the victim's years of experience. Born in 2000 (from evidence 1), it is unbelievable that he has 15 years of experience.

Inspecting this page, gave a clue that there is another path that showed the CCTV footages.
